Litigation

Council members discussed request of senior resident who asked that suspension be lifted on participating in Office on Aging bus trips/excursions. Council decided that the suspension should be kept in place. Mr. Carr noted he would advise the resident.

Mr. Nolan discussed request by landlords to waive utility charges accumulated by tenant at 35-41 Ferry St. Mr. Nolan advised it is the owner's responsibility to keep track of accounts. Council was in agreement that the charges should not be waived. Mr. Carr noted he would advise the owners. There was discussion about having utility bills sent to owners rather than tenants.

Mr. Nolan stated that a request was received from a resident offering to purchase a paper street from the Borough. He said that he would research the matter further and advise Council.

Closed session ended at 7:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Patricia O'Connor, RMC
Borough Clerk
