SEPTEMBER 15, 2011

- Event Planning – $966.42 -Health and Wellness Seminar Series, October's seminar will be 10/2, topic will be Weight Reduction. Shari stated that she will send thank you notes to the Church and to the people who supplied refreshments for their hospitality. She hopes next time there will be more people in attendance. More flyers need to go out for advertisement. November's seminar will be on the Heart. Paul stated that he thought the speakers for the two seminars were great. Health and Wellness Fair – moving along. Many different types of screening will be there. Members were given a list to go to 6 merchants in town and ask if they would like to donate a gift for the raffle table. Frost on the Pumpkin coming along. Volunteers are needed for the event.
- County Health - Joan to hand out a survey on 10/2.
- Handicap and Disabled – Meeting to be held month. Teresa to report after that.
- Operation RAM – $505.30 - Atlantic City trip on 9/24. Discussion of having the trip or not was reviewed due to the fact that less than half of the bus was filled and the Board will lose money. Therefore, due to other commitments, personal issues and not having a full bus, it was voted all in favor to cancel the trip. Joan and Joyce brought up other places to check with regards to collection of Operation RAM, etc. churches and schools. They are to follow up and report back. All members were asked for the next meeting to bring back suggestions for fund raising for 2012. Motion was made by Joan Pisuk and seconded by Mary Wilk, all were in favor.
